

Where to get married: World's best wedding venues

Wondering where to get married? Here are some of the classiest resorts at the most stunning wedding locations

By Anthea Gerrie 13 February, 2012

If your big day's approaching you'll be asking yourself: where to get married?

We've put on our wedding planner shoes and stomped around the world (virtually speaking anyway) searching for the best wedding venues offering tailored packages.

We discovered a few that will impress you, your spouse and maybe even the cranky mother-in-law.

Chateau in Burgundy, France

Photo credit: Château de Varennes

they organize nuptials amid the world's greatest vineyards at the stunning Château de Varennes in Burgundy.

The five-figure bash for 100 includes ceremony in the private chapel or grounds, with a string quartet accompaniment, cocktails and sit-down dinner for 100 guests in the orangery, DJ, hair and make-up and a photographic record of the whole event.

There's room for 30 to sleep over in the chateau, and bed-and-breakfast in nearby chateaux for the rest. Two nights' accommodation for the happy couple in the bridal suite is included in the cost.